Guidelines

Aims and Scope: CLS aims to be the leading academic and professional English journal of Iran in the field of English literature and contemporary literary and cultural studies. This means playing a creative role in the academic discourse by disseminating research on a global scale, and an ability to combine quality and innovation. CLS aims at reporting high-quality theoretical and original research contributions for the benefit of academic researchers in the field of Literature and Cultural Studies. The journal consists of both researchers in specific fields and multidisciplinary researchers of long-standing and emerging knowledge.

The scope includes theories and practices in Literary Criticism and Theory, Literary Movements, Schools, and Genres, Critical Approaches and Concepts, Cultural Studies, Artistic Genres, Cultural Products, and Practical Reading of Literary and Cultural Texts. CLS focuses on comparative literature with an interdisciplinary nature. The journal welcomes research works concerning English literature on one hand and the literature in Persian, Kurdish, Turkish, and Arabic on the other hand. Additionally, interdisciplinarity is of central interest to the papers published by the CLS journal.

Manuscript Submission: Manuscripts should be prepared in Microsoft Word and submitted online in order to be reviewed by CLS Editorial Board. Papers submitted to this journal must be original, and should not be previously submitted to any other journals. The papers are forwarded to reviewers only if they are accepted to proceed to peer-review process by at least two members of the Editorial Board.

The Author is supposed to upload the title page as a supplementary file for the editor to review in order to assure blind review. After receiving submission request (Microsoft Word File), an e-mail would be sent to the Author.

If you do not receive the confirmation e-mail, please attempt to send your file for the second time. Hereafter, authors must be waiting for approval of their work before publication. To submit your papers to CLS, you should first register and then login at: <http://cls.uok.ac.ir/>

Paper Selection and Publication Process: The editors have the right to edit or otherwise alter all contributions. After publication, the corresponding author will receive a hard copy of the journal's Issue free of charge. If more copies are desired, please contact the editor before making an order. A PDF version of the journal is available for download on the journal's webpage.

Manuscript Review: Both reviewer and author's identification would be anonymous. Paper will be examined by at least two members of the Editorial Board and two reviewers. The peer-review process takes approximately three months. Notification of the result of review will be sent by e-mail. The papers, if accepted, are sent to the technical editor for checking the citations and sources. In the next stage, the papers are sent to the literary editor to be stylistically revised in terms of Standard academic English. The Persian abstract of the papers are keenly revised by the Persian editors of the journal according to the instructions of The Academy of Persian Language and Literature. It is only after these stages that the journal's DOI is assigned to the papers, designating the immediate publication of the paper. The corresponding author is informed and asked to cooperate in all the stages of the above-mentioned process.

Copyright and Offprint: With first publication the copyrights for an article goes to CLS. However, authors have rights to reuse, archive, and distribute their own articles after publication. Subsequently, the journal takes no responsibility about after published usage of articles.

Publication Ethics: CLS follows the COPE, Committee on Publication Ethics, and Creative Common, and complies with the highest ethical standards in accordance with ethical laws. All the submitted manuscripts are thus checked for similarity through iTenticate software.

Citation: The journal follows MLA Style. Each work cited in the text must appear in the Works Cited list, and vice-versa. However, two kinds of material are cited only in the text: references to classical works such as The Bible and The Qur'an, whose sections are standardized across editions, and references to personal communication.

Authority and Responsibilities: The Editor and the publisher accept no responsibility for the opinions and statements of authors in their papers published in the CLS journal. The Editorial Board amends and revises the papers stylistically; however, it does not change or violate the content of the papers.
